

Limited Authority

McDaniels does not authorize Managers or other Associates to enter into vending or other service or product related contracts on it's behalf. Further, McDaniels Managers are not authorized to enter into any recurring or roll-over agreements of any kind.

Only the Dealer Principal or Chief Operating Officer is authorized to enter into vending, service related or recurring agreements unless specific written authorization is granted from the Dealer or COO. Should you enter into any agreement in violation of this policy, it will be the Company's position that you did so fraudulently, and you will be held accountable for any harm and all costs to the Company.

You further acknowledge that if you violate this policy, McDaniels may release your personal information to other parties of the contract so that they may pursue payment from you.

Acknowledged

Date